Foreword

In compiling this Chapel Hill Cook Book, the women of Mrs. Frank Miller's and Mrs. R. W. Bost's circles of the Presbyterian Church have attempted to catch and keep some of the originality and appeal of dishes served in the homes of the village, and to preserve some of those for which older hostesses have a gentle fame. All the modest cooks wish to disclaim originating the recipes they furnished. Their signature attests in most cases, they say, their successful experience with the recipe and their approval of it. In a book of this size, no real effort could be made at completeness: therefore, the editors have tried to be selective and to include as great a variety of types as possible. Good luck to all who try them!

OUR ADVERTISERS

Please patronize with appreciation the good friends who made our book possible, those firms and business men in Chapel Hill who have coöperated with us.

MISCELLANEOUS SUGGESTIONS

Hors d'oeuvres are comparatively easy to prepare and make attractive trays or compartment platters. For Sunday night suppers they can be quite the most important item on the menu. Followed by one hot dish, such as deviled crab or cheese soufflé, and a simple dessert of fruit, you have a very substantial supper and one to delight the most fastidious guest. Suggestions in addition to the recipes already given are: Pimento cups stuffed with cheese; caviar canapés decorated with pearl onions; halves of hard-cooked eggs stuffed with sifted egg yolk mixed with mayonnaise and pimentos; mashed grilled sardines on toast; tomato and anchovy canapés; green stuffed olives; California ripe olives; crisp celery stuffed with Roquefort cheese; stuffed olives wrapped with bacon; tiny link sausage, broiled and drained served on tooth picks; artichoke hearts marinated in lemon French dressing; potato salad with pearl onions; small red beets, marinated; antipasto, anchovy, filets, tuna fish, green asparagus tips, marinated; crab meat salad; yellow tomatoes stuffed with caviar; cucumbers stuffed with cheese and sliced. Garnish with water-cress, parsley, and green pepper rings; green peppers, stuffed with highly seasoned cream cheese and put in refrigerator to harden, then sliced.

| $\frac{1}{4}$ cup flour | $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon lemon juice |

ROAST CHICKEN

Clean and dress chicken. Dust chicken with flour, pepper and salt; add $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of butter. One-fourth cup of water may be added when chicken has been in the oven $\frac{1}{2}$ hour. The chicken may be covered at this time, although it will be quite satisfactory in the open pan. Baste chicken thoroughly before dishing. To make the gravy, remove chicken, skim off the fat and add $2\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoons of flour to liquid in pan and blend carefully. Then add water in which the giblets have been cooked. Stir until boiling; cook 5 minutes.

The average takes from one to two hours to roast.

SALAD (CHICKEN)

Cut cold chicken into pieces, cut celery into pieces. Use 2 parts chicken to 1 of celery, sprinkle with salt, a little red pepper and lemon juice. Stir in lightly with a fork, mayonnaise (or half mayonnaise and half cooked salad dressing) sufficient to season well. Whipped cream can be added to dressing if desired. Turkey can be used as well as chicken. For football menus fill finger rolls with the salad. Heat thoroughly and serve immediately.

STEWED CHICKEN (CZECHOSLOVAKIAN)

Clean the chickens and cut them into four or eight pieces. Melt fat in a frying pan and let cut up onions braise in it, but not until the onions get brown, then mix in some sweet red pepper. Put in the chickens and a little water and braise them in this until they are quite soft. Now put in some sour cream in which you have mixed a little flour, but do not let it boil after the cream has been added.

ELINOR HENDERSON from MRS. M. S. WHITE.

TURKEY (ROASTED WITH DRESSING)

For a 10-pound turkey use 2 small loaves of bread. Tear bread apart and toast slightly and grind in meat chopper. The foundation of the stuffing is:

Soft bread crumbs

1 teaspoon pepper

$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon sage

1 teaspoon minced parsley

Mix lightly all ingredients with hand. Mix small bits of hard butter all through dressing. Stuff the turkey with this, then sew it up. Also fill loose part of neck.

Rub turkey with butter and dredge with flour, after placing it on its side on the meat rack. When the flour in the baking pan browns pour in water and begin basting. When it has cooked $\frac{1}{2}$ hour on one side turn on its back to brown the breast. Success in roasting depends on a brisk oven and faithful basting.

Breads

BAKING POWDER BISCUIT

2 cups flour	4 tablespoons shortening
4 teaspoons baking powder	2/3 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt

Mix and sift flour, baking powder, and salt. Work in shortening with finger tips until mixture looks like coarse meal. Make a well in center, add the milk all at once and stir until well mixed. DANZIGER'S RECIPES

BEEF GOULASH

3 lbs. beef—any good cut or chuck	2 or 3 teaspoons of paprika
2 lbs. onions	Salt to taste
	Soup or water

Cut onions in rings and saute to a light yellow in shortening. Cut meat in large squares and add to onions, salt and paprika and roast until the juices are cooked nearly dry. Then pour in the soup or hot water until meat is covered, cover with a lid and let simmer until meat is done. Mix one tablespoon of flour with enough water to make a smooth thin paste and thicken the juices. Cook a few minutes longer until flour is done, pour gravy over meat and serve with potatoes.

APPLE STRUDEL

Pastry

½ lb. of flour
1 egg
Salt to taste
Dash of vinegar

Filling

4 lbs. of apples, sliced
¼ lb. of raisins
1 teaspoon of cinnamon
½ lb. of sugar
⅓ lb. of almonds, sliced

¼ lb. of soft butter—¼ lb. of stale white bread crumbs.

Pile flour on the bread-board, making a hole in the center. Mix well the egg, water, salt and vinegar and pour in the hole in the flour, working it first with a knife, then with the hands until the flour is used up. Then throw the dough on the board until bubbles appear. Form it in a ball and cover with a warm pot, letting it stand a half-hour, or longer. In the meantime prepare the filling.

Spread a large cloth over bread-board and sift flour over it. Put dough on cloth and roll from the center on all sides. Flour the hands and stretch dough quickly and carefully until it becomes transparent. Trim away the thick edge with a knife, then spread softened butter over the dough, and over that the bread crumbs, covering one-fifth of the sheet. Then spread the filling on three-fourths of the sheet, lift the lower edge and start the roll, using the cloth in rolling as in making a jelly-roll. Lay in buttered baking pan in shape of a horse-shoe and bake about three-quarters of an hour, and until crisp.
